THE DIRECTOR

Wes Skinner (Director)

Wes has been actively involved in theatre, working as a set and costume designer as well as a choreographer and a director for over 40 years. Beginning in Boston, he received his BFA at the Conservatory with a major in dance and a minor in musical theatre, and then spent several years in New York City.

Finally returning to Toledo, he began working with The Village Players in 1971 doing Roar of the Greasepaint. He most recently directed Night Music, Suds, Blues in the Night and last year's All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten. When not at The Village he also works with Ottawa Hills High School's theatre department, restores old homes in the Old West End and, just so he won't get bored, he does package design for the corrugated industry.

Debbie Wlodarski (Musical Director & Pianist)

This is Debbie's eighth season with The Village Players. She has been our musical director for All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten, 70, Girls, 70, Dames at Sea, Angry Housewives, A Little Night Music, Suds, and Blues in the Night. She has also performed with ToDAY Productions, The Bedford Community Players, Monroe Community Players and Oregon Community Players as well as playing for area schools for their musicals. She balances all this with her sales position at Performance Tool and Abrasive, serving as an organist at Collingwood United Methodist Church and teaching piano lessons. "I would like to say a special 'Thank You' to Wes Skinner and everyone involved with The Village Players for giving me the wonderful opportunity of being your musical director. Working with all of you is always an enlightening and exceptional experience. A very special 'thank you' to my husband for all of his patience and loving support!"

THE CAST

David R. Dysard (Brother Brooks)

This is Dave's second Village show having enjoyed last year's romp in Kindergarten. A 30-plus year veteran of community theatre, his credits include: Christmas Carol (Crachit), Charlie Brown (Snoopy) Sound of Music (Max) 1776 (Roger Sherman), Guys and Dolls, Singing in the Rain and Fiddler with the Toledo Rep and many other performances with North Coast troop at the Art Museum, TLC Productions, the Ohio Theatre (where he reprised his favorite role – Fagin in Oliver), and the Albany (NY) Civic Theatre. The last two years Dave ventured out to the other side of the footlights to direct Once Upon A Mattress and South Pacific with ToDAY Productions. To pay the rent, Dave is Vice President of Transportation with the Toledo Metropolitan Area Council of Governments, supervising an eight-person staff that develops transportation policy and projects for the Toledo area. Dave is happily married and the proud father of four talented children. Everyone (including Aunt Dorothy and Aunt Judy) shares his love of the family "sport" – "Thanks, guys!"

Matt Richardson (Brother Clarence)

This is Matt's fourth show for The Village. You may have seen him in Angry Housewives, A Little Night Music, or All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten. Matt has also performed with BGSU Summer Theatre, Waterville Playshop, Archbold Community Theatre, Bedford Community Theatre and 3B Productions. He has most recently received an Exceptional Vocal Performance award at this year's OCTA Regional Event for his performance in Civil War; and will be performing the same excerpt at the state level. Matt will be playing Gaston in Oregon Community Theatre's production of Beauty and the Beast this November. See you there!

Jeffrey Thomas King (Brother Forte)

Jeffrey dusts off his sandals for his return to The Village. He followed his previous role(s) from Suds and has been a Turkey (Honk!), a rundown musician (Sugar), an elephant (Seussical), and most recently a bartender (Fiddler). In the window of spare time he teaches nursery school, works at a bank, cashiers at a grocery store and courts his girlfriend of six years; Korinne. He will be choreographing Charlotte's Web for Waterville Playshop in February. A very special message to those who have come to support him "..."

Ben Lumbrezer (Abbot Costello)

Ben is happy to once again appear on the Village Players stage. Ben has been seen in many roles, including Benedick in Much Ado About Nothing, George in Of Mice and Men, and several others that he has either blocked out or can't recall to protect the innocent. He would like to thank his wife Thereasa for her support and her willingness to once again become a theater widow.

Paul Soska (Brother Lee Love)

This is Paul's first Village production, but he is no stranger to the stage. He first got the "theater bug" in high school (St. Ignatius H.S., Cleveland, OH). He studied drama at Kenyon College, with emphases on directing, theatre history, and dramatic literature. He has intermittently worked both sides of the footlights since that time. For the past three seasons, Paul has performed with Toledo opera as a member of the opera chorus. He is relieved to be part of a production where nobody dies ... and there's no fat lady! By vocation, Paul is a school psychologist with Eastwood Local Schools. He currently makes his home in Toledo with his two teenage cats, Butch and Cincinnati.

The fun-loving monks of Saint Bernard's monastery are in a jam. Either they raise $250,000 by midnight or lose their monastery to a real-estate developer with plans to turn it into Bernie's Casino Royale. "Monks, mayhem and merriment... the musical comedy Monkey Business is no-holds barred fun."

Murder in Green Meadows

This gag-filled comedy is about a couple who run a diner near Las Vegas. In 1940, their only customer (it seems) is a footsore Illinois girl hitchhiking to Hollywood to certain stardom. Years later she returns—in a limousine—to bail out her old friends. “funny, disarming, and engaging.”
